

You Cant Go to Sleep

Street To Nowhere

You cant go to sleep
sleep has gotta come to you
you cant go to sleep
She's gotta come to you She's a cold wind on your eyes a glacier in your mind a naive girl, who thinks she fell in love for the first time Don't say a thing
she comes for me
Don't say a thing
Don't say a thing
she comes for me
You cant go to sleep
gotta make her feel unwanted
you cant go to sleep
gotta make her want it you can chase her round for hours adjusted eyes bouquet of flowers You'll come on too strong and burn holes in the ceiling with your eyes you swear you're getting close You're tearing off her clothes She'll spread wings
and you cant even sleep to dream to fly
Don't say a thing
she comes for me
Don't say a thing
Don't say a thing
she comes for me
Gonna make a habit
of the medicine cabinet Gonna make a habit
hold down her wrists and hold down your eyelids and fall asleep
