The Sleepover Disaster

I hide my face under a blanket
Keep out the day and the headaches
Curl in a ball, ever inward
Heap of my breath, suffocating

Struggle out of bed, eyes blurry
Wash my face, I still don't see
I'm in a (funk), there's no movement
I can't think, I can't reason
I'm in a hole, without you, crawling
... of the light, I think its bleeding
Fall deeper still, tumbling
I'm in a hole, without you, crawling

In spite of me
I can't break free, free
Sink my fist and batter down memory
All my ties just break, behind me
I'm fading ...
I can't make it harder

I'll ride on this cage (x3)

Honestly
It's not that bad
Honestly
It's not that bad

When you
Share that breath
Lay in bed
I've had enough fade away
