

Love the Lie

Zodiac Death Valley

Love the Lie
by Zodiac Death Valley

At the top of the stairs, Shocked! to find
-her Words went down mean screams they were, "yeah we are so over
"As I closed up the gates, Shocked! to find out Four years down the drain regret remains yeah we are so over From what what we longed to be and cried about looking at the same old thing and yeah we'll always be the couple draped in shame At the final exchange Shocked! to find out insomnia, domination and abuse they are so over So we finally escaped and fight to exist
I wish you the best in this test of life yeah we are so over What what we longed to be and cried about looking at the same old thing and yeah we'll always be the couple draped in shame
Solo
From what what we longed to be and cried about looking at the same old thing and yeah we'll always be the couple draped in shame
Love is a lie and I'm sick and tired of the same old thing you give me nothing but confusion and illusion yeah its the same old thing Love the lie and I'm sick and tired of the same old thing
you give me nothing but confusion and illusion yeah its the same old thing
You give me nothin nothin nothin
Love is a lie and I'm sick and tired of the same old thing
you give me nothing but confusion and illusion yeah its the same old thing
Love the lie and I'm sick and tired of the same old thing
you give me nothing but confusion and illusion yeah its the same old thing
You give me nothin nothin nothin
