Milwaukee

Halo Friendlies

i met you in milwaukee in between the heat and rain i hoped that you would talk to me i hoped that you would feel the same i made my way to you to my surprise my heart stopped and all i felt were butterfliesit's alright now you're gone it's alright you were wrong it's alright i'm growing up and my life goes onwe drove to cincinnati and wednesday on to tennessee we sang until the morning and nashville is where you kissed me but i was subconciously too naive you'd make your way to her when i would leaveyou broke my heart into a million little pieces i have no feelings left for you to kill
