

Milwaukee

Halo Friendlies

i met you in milwaukee in between the heat and rain i hoped that you would talk to me i hoped that you would feel the same i made my way to you to my surprise my heart stopped and all i felt were butterflies it's alright now you're gone it's alright you were wrong it's alright i'm growing up and my life goes on we drove to cincinnati and wednesday on to tennessee we sang until the morning and nashville is where you kissed me but i was subconsciously too naive you'd make your way to her when i would leave you broke my heart into a million little pieces i have no feelings left for you to kill
