Have you ever felt lonely?
Have you ever felt lonely?
Have you ever felt kicked inside
Kicked inside for nothing?Have you ever felt needed?
Have you ever felt needed?
Have you ever felt peace of mind
In every small endeavor?I want you back
No guarantee forever
Still I want you back
I can lose and I can find
I can think there's always something betterHave you ever felt lonely?
Have you ever felt lonely?
Have you ever felt sick and tired
Sick and tired of wandering?Have you ever felt needed?
Have you ever felt needed?
Have you ever revealed yourself
And sent it off in a letter?I want you back
No guarantee forever
Still I want you back
I can lose and I can find
I can think there's always something betterStill I want you backI can lose and I can find
I can think there's always something betterI want you back
No guarantee forever
Still I want you backI want you back
No guarantee forever
Still I want you back
I want you backI want you back
I want you back
I want you back
