

There's a Fire

OK Go

Stop getting me off track.

I mean it, there's a problem here.

This time it is for real...

How can I make myself more clear?I never say quite what I mean, and never mean quite what I say,

And how did that get out of me, and what the hell did I mean to say?This time it is for real.

This is a real emergency.

This time I swear it is the truth...

This must be dealt with urgently!I never say quite what I mean, and never mean quite what I say,

And how did that get out of me, and what the hell did I mean to say?There's a fire. There's a fire.I really mean it now,

This time I swear I have not lied.

This isn't like the last time...

I swear to God I have not lied!I never say quite what I mean, and never mean quite what I say,

And how did that get out of me, and what the hell did I mean to say?There's a fire. There's a fire.
