Insoluble

Dave Gahan

I scattered the pictures
On the bedroom floor
I should have told you
Oh, many times beforeI should have listened
When you were mine
It could be too late
I've already crossed the lineMy angel
When you are whispering in my ear
You have nothing to fearIt's all, you have nothing to fear
You gave, you have nothing to fear
It's all, you have nothing to fear
I got, you have nothing to fearYou've always been here
By my side
I even felt you
When the earth began to slideMy angel
My angelIt's all, you have nothing to fear
We had, you have nothing to fear
It's all, you have nothing to fear
I got, you have nothing to fearYou have nothing to fear
You have nothing to fear
