

Waiting Here

Josh Hoke

I've about given up, there's no need to pretend
Leave before it's all done, going nowhere again
Give to me all you know, in the rain on the sand
Took a risk you might show, now we walk hand in hand
Stack me up before you go
When the day is finally through
Lean me over up against the wall
I'll be waiting here for you
There's no easy way out, now the door is iced through
Don't know what it's about, but I can't sing for anyone but you
You can hide if you like, so the rains don't come in Show your scars off at night, so it goes and goes and goes
I tell you that I'll be waiting for you, waiting for me
So tell me it's true, how could we deny, when it's so right

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>