

Redbird

Redbird: Kris Delmhurst, Jeffrey Foucault, Peter M

I saw the redbird fly bright flame against the sky burning against the sun, am I the only one? I watched the rose unfold Secrets we left untold
The rose, the red red rose, still nobody knows I split the pomegranate Restless until you've had it Sweet against the tongue, am I the only one? The blood red rubies of... Our sexuality
