Rain, rain, go away
I couldn't take you one more day
There's broken glass here on the floor
And I can't take this anymoreStay, stay don't leave now
I'll do anything but let you go
My hands are cold, my eyes can't see
You can't do this, not to meRain, rain, go away
I can't stand this one more day
I'll close my eyes, I'll shut my brain
I can't stand this fucking rainI can't stand the rain
Close my eyes
