Changing Faces

Clare Maguire

I walk these streets,
a spotlight covers me,
its getting quiet,
I see no money,I see no lifetime in this town, found love and lost my mind,you have seen all my changing faces, and you have never put me down,
i wanna thank you,
just wanna thank you,And down the path, they're drinking from a can,
time to forget,
the hope that covers man, I've seen them fighting, in your yard,
pavements cracked inject me in your arms,you have seen all my changing faces,
and you have never put me down,
i wanna thank you,
just wanna thank you,when I leave you I try,
to block it out my mind, loose myself in a world away from who I am, ahhhh,ahhhhh,you have seen all my changing faces,
and you have never put me down,
i wanna thank you,
just wanna thank you
