

Love You Now

New Medicine

I'll leave my porch light on, unlock my front door
Did you decide to keep me waiting? What you waitin' for?
Wasting time on you - more than I like -
Spent picking up the pieces that you leave behind

Left in your mist, wiping sweat off of my brow
Said I want to learn to love you, try n' teach me how
If being in love takes up all of your time,
Then why do I keep giving you so much of mine?

So find me
When you want to find me
Say you want me badly
Let me know somehow
And I'll wait up
For you to make your mind up
But I'm so tired, boy, wake up
Say you'll love me now
I need to love you now

So am I fighting a boy,
Or am I fighting a man?
Which side will I see when you show up again?
The man won't want to tell me but at least he'll try
Cuz the boy ain't hanging around tonight

So find me
When you want to find me
Say you want me badly
Let me know somehow
And I'll wait up
For you to make your mind up
I'm so tired, boy, wake up
Say you'll love me now
I need to love you now

Stay, don't explain
Why you stay
Don't explain
If you stay, don't explain

Why you stay
Don't explain

Just find me
When you want to find me
Say you want me badly
Let me know somehow
And I'll wait up
For you to make your mind up
I'm so tired, boy, wake up
Say you'll love me now
