

Flesh For Bones

Terra Naomi

Im sitting here frozen in this bed I made
Considering the weight of the bricks I laid now that Im through
One by one sealed every crack that I could slip
Between to find my way back, find my way back home to you And Im burning all my bridges
With these matches I light
To illuminate my path to what is right
And even if its true what they say
That you cant go back home
Once youve cast it away
I would still have left tonight You know, baby, I would be with you if I could
To trade my flesh for your bones
I would, I would, I would, I would, I would I carry with me on my way
All the ghosts of all the love that I let slip away
The heavy weight of promises made
That if I could exonerate I might just lift off today And Im burning all my bridges
With these matches I light
To illuminate my path to what is right
And even if its true what they say
That you cant go back home
Once youve cast it away
I would still have left tonight You know, baby, I would be with you if I could
To trade my flesh for your bones
I would, I would, I would, I would, I would I chased your memory from my mind
But every song I write is just a wish to find you near or far
Through all the tears and all the time
That I been running blind, I still aint got to where you are And Im burning all my bridges
With these matches I light
To illuminate my path to what is right
And even if its true what they say
That you cant go back home
Once youve cast it away
I would still have left tonight You know, baby, I would be with you if I could
To trade my flesh for your bones
I would, I would, I would, I would, I would
