

Ship The Majestic Suffix

Danielson

Before our time
Upon a noun
There stood still a ship Standing proud She tows lines
Transforms words
To be more than they are
When they are alone
On their own
Pointing to no one Ships displaying
The quality
The rank craft state
Skill dignity
When our ship comes
Into nations
Who will tow the line?
Ships passing into the night
Taking flight
with goods for everyone Ships are led by
The compass ones
These shipshape daughters
These shipshape sons When our ship draws
In the nations
He shall tow our line Our ships of fools
From failing schools
We need now hear the children
They desperately
Are needing to be
Be set free
They are afraid
But so are we
This can not be See hope
Our captain riding
Throughout these heavens
Bringing peace We're shipping out
Our men again
Oh I pray it will end These tunes
Are never ending
Thank you for sending
Them to our hands Before our time
Upon a noun

There stood still a ship Standing proud She tows lines
Transform words
To be more than they are
When they are alone
On their own
She's pointing to
The one
