Burn

Shout Out Louds

Morning comes and theres a light upon your shoulder
Its too early to say whats really on my mind
The sun at your eyes and your face looks so much older
Than I can remember from last night
Do I remember anything at all?You say we burn and we burn without a fire
You say well hold on, hold on until we expireI picked you up from the same place where I left you
You had your work clothes on, only the maid could reveal you
We ran the belt again, oh that sound is so alarming
It is louder than our love, it is louder than well ever beMorning comes again and the lights back on your shoulder
Travels through your hair from one side to the other
Im no longer worried, Im not going anywhereYou say we burn and we burn without a fire
You say well hold on, hold on until we expire
You say we never get old, we get younger and younger
You say well hold on, hold on until we expireMorning comes again and the lights back on your shoulder
Travels through your hair from one side to the other
Im no longer worried, Im not going anywhereYou say we burn and we burn without a fire
You say well hold on, hold on until we expire
You say we never get old, we get younger and younger
You say well hold on, hold on until we expire
