Paradise Lost

Living life today
Oh when tomorrow brings this trail of desperate thoughts
Living so afraid
Oh when tomorrow brings this trail of simple thoughtsGive in for one day
Face the absolute that things won't go your wayI cannot overstate the problems you have caused
When they all seem to be much deeper than beforeLiving for today
Oh when tomorrow brings this trail of damaged thoughts
Living for today
Until the afternoon reactions take their courseI cannot overstate the problems you have caused
When they all seem to be much deeper than before, beforeThere's something invisible
[Incomprehensible]Anger so deep and anger so alive
Anger so deep and anger so aliveIt's Jesus ChristI cannot overstate the problems you have caused
When they all seem to be much deeper than beforeI cannot overstate the problems you have caused
When they all seem to be much deeper than before, than beforeIt's Jesus Christ
