Everything You Love

Chimaira

Can't sleep with all this frustration
Intoxication
I no longer have regretSo what if I caused hysteria?
It's not my dilemma
I'm only here to inflict painI will never forgive the one's who
Pushed me away
Like a tumor, rage grows inside me
Reminding me everyday
I will retaliate, whoaA thorn in my side for years
The man who sheds no tears
I am here to expose youAll of the poison that you take
All people you violate
Your faith can't save you nowI will never forgive the one's who
Pushed me away
Like a tumor, rage grows inside me
Reminding me everyday
I will retaliateI am your family
With the power
To end everything
Everything you love, you loveYou should be
You should be paranoidI guess, I no longer share this vision
I guess, I have a new agenda
While you sink down into your hole
I am proud to watch you lose controlI will never forgive the one's who
Pushed me away
Like a tumor, rage grows inside me
Reminding me everydayI will never forgive the one's who
Pushed me away
Like a tumor, rage grows inside me
Reminding me everyday
I will retaliateI am your family
With the power
To end everythingEverything you want
Everything you feel
Everything you need
Everything you loveYou love
You love
You love
