Control Yourself

Furthest Drive Home

I don't want to control myself
(You don't have to control...)
I greet the god Within your id
Nothing matters now and so what if it did

Break loose Get wild Be wrong that's right
Uncomplicate your life if just for one night
That was rock but this is roll
This is shock but that was soul

You don't have to control yourself
Do you have to control yourself
(I don't have to control myself)
This is the place This is the time

Time to lose control
And start changing your mind
This is a clue This is a sign
Mine could be yours and yours could be mine

This is then but that was now
This is then but that will be now
