

He's Got A Secret

The Bangles

Oh, there he goes
Everybody's watching, everybody knows
Something's going on, it certainly shows
When he's got a secret for you
It's there when he walks, it's there when he smiles
He kisses your cheek and disappears for a while
Nothing in the world's gonna cramp his style
If only he could keep it from you
Oh, I don't believe that you haven't seen by now
Don't look at me 'cause I'll never tell
Don't you ever wonder why the phone always rings

Seven-thirty-one every evening
Doesn't it upset you when you call his name
And he doesn't pay attention to you.
Oh, I don't believe that you haven't seen by now
Don't look at me 'cause I'll never tell
Don't know the places he goes
Don't know the people he knows
Don't you understand, it's out of your hands
Oh, I don't believe that you haven't seen by now
Don't look at me 'cause I'll never tell
