

Nordland

BinÃ¤rpilot

Land of unforgiving winter
Cold, clad in white, under a dark grey sky
Silent, the wind, it whispers

Pale sun of gold, gazing from far up high
Endless forests, lakes of water dark and deep
Misty mountains, where giants sleep
NordlandHigh about all, the ravens
Spreading their wings to fly to the hall up high
Messengers of the all fathers

Oden behold all with his one eye
Eagle soaring, old crow cries

This land and heaven, forever tied
NordlandCold the waves along the shoreline
White wolfs realm from here to mountains high afar
Land of ours since it rose out of deep cold sea

Shine on our path, yes brightest of all, Northstar
Foreverdark woods, cold winds sweep
Barren landscape, untamed and bleak
Nordland
