Momma's Song

Toby Love

Ohh
Ahh
All my life I've had someone to share my deepest thoughts and blessings.For that I thank you.You said I'll be a star some day, because of you these songs I sing today.OhhNow tell me oh Momma,
What 'ya think about your boy today?Everything I am is 'cause of you, you cleared my cloudest skies and now they're blue.why siempre sere el nino aquel,
The one that always made you smile, always be there for 'ya (always be there for 'ya)why siempre seras la madre ideal me llenas de alegria always be there for 'ya (always be there for 'ya.)And even thought times were rough when I was younger, you were there to stop my hunger.
You took it all away, away.Through the heartaches and the pain you always stayed the same.My run is with the law, against the world we fought, I need you to forgive me (forgive me).Now tell me oh Momma,
What 'ya think about your boy today?Everything I am is 'cause of you, you cleared my cloudest skies and now they're blue.why siempre sere el nino aquel,
The one that always made you smile, always be there for 'ya (always be there for 'ya)why siempre seras la madre ideal me llenas de alegria always be there for 'ya (always be there for 'ya.)Always.Te llevo, muy dentro.
And I will never forget about you (will never forget about you).
Remember repay youwhy siempre sere el nino aquel,
The one that always made you smile, always be there for 'ya (always be there for 'ya)
