Planet Earth

Duncan Browne

Iâ€™m not your twentieth century man
Oh, no
I was dancing in the dark
before the world began
on planet earth

And maybe Iâ€™m a dying man trying to get through
If I could starcrash
upon your world
across this endless night falling for you

Iâ€™m not your twentieth century man
Oh, no
I was dancing in the dark
before it all began
on planet earth

And baby Iâ€™m a lonely man falling through the midnight sky A million stars have only made me blind Iâ€™ll set my satellite for terra nova

Oh, no
I was dancing in the stars
before the world began
on planet earth

And maybe Iâ€™m a son of man flying home to you
into the universe
I lose my mind
Iâ€™ll set my sail tonight
for terra nova
