Then I Woke Up

allMeadow & Rob Costlow

I get into the car, turn the radio up real far
To shut out the noise so I can hear my voice
There's a party on down the street
But nobody invited me, 'cause I got a gig
Baby sittin' my uncle's kids
Why me? Oh is me
Don't they know that I'm a hip hop queen
A rock and roll dream
It's all bling bling, I'm the star of the scene
Yeah, check me out see what I'm all about
I'm the one that you want, the one you can't have
The girl that you call that doesn't ever call back
Just look at me, I've got everything
But then I woke up
I was lying on the couch, drool coming out my mouth
Turned on the TV, Dr. Phil won't you please fix me?
Waiting for the phone to ring, flipping through a magazine
Why doesn't he call, guess I'm the loser down the hall
Why me? I just wanna sleep
Don't they know that I'm a hip hop queen
A rock and roll dream
It's all bling bling, I'm the star of the scene
Yeah, check me out see what I'm all about
I'm the one that you want, the one you can't have
The girl that you call that doesn't ever call back
Just look at me, I've got everything
But then I woke up
I like living in a dream
It's everything it's supposed to be
It's a holiday from me
It's all just kickin' in
And this is where I begin
Just being me, its okay to be me
But it's fun to be a hip hop queen
A rock and roll dream
It's all bling bling, yeah, baby, ka-ching
Come check me out, I'm bringin' down the house
I'm the one that you want, you know I'm Heaven sent
I'm a little Lynrd Skynrd, a little 50 Cent

Just look at me, I've got everything
But then I woke up, I woke up, I woke up, I woke up
But then I woke up, I woke up
Just look at me, I have everything
