

Suffocate

Cyhyraeth

Hate all the blood on my hands
And the sins that bleed from my soul
Take, I take it all away make it go away
 Stand up for bein'
 The last one to control
 What you're seeing
 It starts from me
 And the last to know
 Stand up for bein'
 The last one to control
 But what you can't see is bein'
 The last one to know
 Fade into a dream
Try and save me from myself now
 Save me from myself now
 Fallen from the world
 If I could ever breathe in the air
 Maybe then I wouldn't suffocate
 Face all the things that were Real to me long ago to save my Name, I never thought it would
 Be such a long way to fall
 Stand up for bein'
 The last one to control
 What you're seeing
 It starts from me
 And the last to know
 Stand up for bein'
 The last one to control
 But what you can't see is bein'
 The last one to know
 Fade into a dream
Try and save me from myself now
 Save me from myself now
 Fallen from the world
 If I could ever breathe in the air
 Maybe then I wouldn't suffocate
 Fade into a dream
 See me from myself

See me from myself
Fade into a dream
Try and save me from myself now
Save me from myself now
Fallen from the world
If I could ever breathe in the air
Maybe then I wouldn't suffocate
Stand up for bein'
The last one
Stand up for bein'
The last one to fall
Stand up for bein'
The last one
