

Winter Coats

Better Than Ezra

(written by kevin griffin)

(transcribed by ferlen david iii) Discarded, left behind

Paper-cups and sour wine

Candlewax, tablecloth

Try to wash, it won't come off

Ticket stubs and movie scenes

Dustin hoffman has gangrene

Ferris-wheel in the park

City lights after dark Well I'm goin' home when I find the girl

Makes me forget what I should have done

In winter coats

In winter coats

In winter coats

In winter

Lives are fallin' fast in line

The words make sense

But they don't seem to rhyme Risin' tide, ocean breeze

Crashin' waves, askin' please

Listen to the radio

Singin' with the songs you know

Tim passing, memory fades

Forget about the plans we made

Decisions wrap the coat up tight

We keep it safe from the light But I'm goin' home when I find the girl

Makes me forget what I should have not

In winter coats

In winter coats

In winter coats

In winter

Lives are fallin' fast in line

The words make sense

But they don't seem to rhyme [take it, joel] But I'm goin' home where I'll find the girl

That we won't forget what we should have not

In winter coats

In winter coats

In winter coats

In winter

Lives are fallin' fast in line

Our words make sense

But we don't seem to rhyme
We don't seem to rhyme
We don't seem to rhyme
We don't seem to rhyme
