Despondent Souls

Immolation

Slaughtering the innocent
Massacring the weak
Intimidate their fearful minds
Corrupt their structurer worldAfflict with terror, their lives suppressed
Consuming all their hopes
Expurgate their thoughts, oppressing all
Nauseate with frightHollowed shells of living corpses
Pay homage to their art
Frail and weak, despondent souls
Are prematurely deadCherished hopes beyond your grasp
Trepidation grows within
Time exists to test your brain
Tormenting fast your sanityDormant lives are cast aside
Evil slaughter, vile and sick
Feel the pain!Deep below damp and cold
Chambers filled with rotting dead
Sealed together cryptic cells
Twisted corpses in a mangled graveMaggots grow deep inside
Multiply savored feast
Concealed to all unknown their fate
Plea for life their cries obscureSlaughtering the innocent
Massacring the weak
Intimidate their fearful minds
Corrupt their structurer worldAfflict with terror, their lives suppressed
Consuming all their hopes
Expurgate their thoughts, oppressing all
Nauseate with frightHollowed shells of living corpses
Pay homage to their art
Frail and weak, despondent souls
Are prematurely deadCherished hopes beyond your grasp
Trepidation grows within
Time exists to test your brain
Tormenting fast your sanityDormant lives are cast aside
Evil slaughter, vile and sick
Feel the pain!
