

Run Dry (feat. Tanner Merritt of O'Brother)

Caspian

from the time we were young we were wild eyed dreamers now we cautiously raise our eyes the season has turned from one to the next we are wide awake now
we are wide awake now
we are wide awake now there's a burden we all must shoulder so come on and put your back to the load tears won't help but to water the ground nothing will grow, so weep til you're dry or til you run dry
we are wide awake now
we are wide awake now
wide awake now
wide awake now
