

If You Found This It's Probably Too Late

Arctic Monkeys

Anything we should know about your change? -- Oh and the cost to correct a fraud

A fraud

I'm going to go out and kid them

Applaud

Applaud

If you're the highest bidder, I'm yours You figure out pathetic sets

We're not sure of the etiquette

We think out pathetic sets

We're not sure of the etiquette And if you found this it's probably too late

Clinically cynical hereditary hate

If you found this it's probably too late

Ever so clinical I'm running out of mates If we concentrate on being off the cuff

Not sure we're ready but probably rough

Frightening honesty isn't enough

And it's nothing on the early stuff
