Power Down

Chris Whitley

Down, down, down
All is revealed when you hit the ground
Miss Amelia, where are you now?
Isolation up in the cloudsCould be time to power down
Down, down, down
No one here, nowhere's around
Round and round
Could be time to power down
Down, down, downEmiliano, where are you now?
Alien nation in a middle of townCould be time to power down
Down, down, down
No one here, nowhere around
Round and round
Could be time to power down
Down, down, downDown, down, down, down
'Cuz only one thing can power me downShe got engine in her eyes
She got a throttle that she cannot disguise
All is revealed when you hit the groundCould be time to power down
Down, down, down
Round and round
Could be time to power down
Down, down, downCould be time to power down
Down, down, down
Down, down, down, down
Down, down, down, down
