

Power Down

Chris Whitley

Down, down, down
All is revealed when you hit the ground
Miss Amelia, where are you now?
Isolation up in the clouds Could be time to power down
Down, down, down
No one here, nowhere's around
Round and round
Could be time to power down
Down, down, down Emiliano, where are you now?
Alien nation in a middle of town Could be time to power down
Down, down, down
No one here, nowhere around
Round and round
Could be time to power down
Down, down, down Down, down, down, down
'Cuz only one thing can power me down She got engine in her eyes
She got a throttle that she cannot disguise
All is revealed when you hit the ground Could be time to power down
Down, down, down
No one here, nowhere's around
Round and round
Could be time to power down
Down, down, down Could be time to power down
Down, down, down
Down, down, down, down
Down, down, down, down
