Body Move

Rare Essence

I wanna see that body move, I wanna see that body move,
I wanna see that body move, I wanna see that body move, I wanna see that body move
I don't care, cuz tonight
I could me the one now
And her stares shines a light
It's hard for me to come down
On her stage, she's enough
To make me forget
While she'll pace, back and forth
The sun will unset
But she's makin eyes me, yeah
It's hard for me to see, yeah
Now I can feel her breathin
It's time to get her all alone
I wanna see that body move, I wanna see that body move,
I wanna see that body move, I wanna see that body move
In the back we're alone
And I make believe, yeah
What we have is our own
That nobody sees

And a kiss from her mouth
Which ain't supposed to be
And it starts goin south
This girl is for me
But she's makin eyes me, yeah
It's hard for me to see, yeah
Now I can feel her breathin
It's time to get her all alone
I wanna see that body move, I wanna see that body move,
I wanna see that body move, I wanna see that body move
I know she want it, I'm on it
This ain't no lie
I don't pay it, she waitin
For me at night
And when she grindin, she mine
And it all comes true
When I see that body move
When I see that body move

I wanna see that body move, I wanna see that body move,
I wanna see that body move, I wanna see that body move,
I don't care, cuz tonight
I could be the one now
