

Morphing into Primal

In Flames

Detonation
Fireworks and alchemy Genes spliced and triggered into the future and her organic caveSeismorgasmic omnipotence scenes of magma in my eyes Eruption stones my systemI owe this to the animal inside and the stiffness that blocks out the daylight Morphing into primalI'll cover every particle from there to Andromeda not forgetting a single location from the throat of Ibis to the co-ordinate of MatterhornMy shot is genesis and catharsis Penetratonaut in a cosmology of lustSuck this subterreanean creature out and show it proudly to the house of heaven With one slight wave of my hand star dissolvesDissolve my brain Block my lungs
I'll die from fever tomorrow when locked in sych a perfected "now"
