

Moments In Time

Kieran Goss

Moving so well
Parallel
But inevitably we Hesitate
And separate
Cant you see what's meant to be
Trying to find
Common mind
But eventually we
Deviate
But surely fate
Is gonna bring our destiny
You will see
There are moments in time
When our hearts realign
And I pray for the day
Longing to see
A guarantee
So then consequently we Complicate
Cant relate
To the path of mystery
Where we see
