

The Worst in Me

Mortiis

How can you live with your life,
knowing all this time that I was right?
You finally don't belong.
So, if we're done here,
I think you should bite your tongue.
I'm sick of watching you come undone.
How can you blame me for the mistakes you made?
I swear, I've been here before.
And you can't change if you were made that way.

You saw the worst in me.
And now I can't go back.
And now I can't believe.
You saw the worst in me.

Cold hearts are never warm when you need them to be.

I never wanted to be loved by anyone.
It was never enough.
I won't punish myself for this.
These are the choices you've made, so deal with it.

So, if we're done here,
I think you should bite you tongue.
I'm sick of watching you come undone.
How can you blame me for the mistakes you made?
I swear, I've been here before.
And you can't change if you were made that way.

You saw the worst in me.
And now I can't go back.
And now I can't believe.
You saw the worst in me.

Cold hearts are never warm when you need them to be.

I never wanted to be loved by anyone.
It was never enough.
I've got a cold heart.

I'll watch you come undone.

I never wanted to be loved by anyone.

It was never enough.

I've got a cold heart.

I'll watch you come undone.
