

Open Your Eyes

AFI

Do you think I give a shit
How I'm seen through your eyes
I just can't fucking stand
The way you always have to criticize
You have to find something wrong
In everything you see
It seems it's not that hard for you
To find everything that's wrong with me
Open your eyes,
And face the truth
(Oah, oah, oah)
Open your eyes
The real problem's you
Does it build your self esteem
To look for mistakes in everyone else
The only answer I could find is that
You're just not happy with yourself
You hide something about yourself
When you point out everyone else's mistakes
'Cause all the problems that you have
Would just be too much for you to take
Open your eyes
And face the truth
(Oah, oah, oah, oah)
Open your eyes
The real problem's you
