Crossfire

Die Krupps

Gunshots fill the air - salute our bliss night bursts into flames - greets the final kiss death comes without a sound - rings the wedding bell target hits the ground - honeymoon in hellshot - shot by both sides in a war that won't cease they gave their lives unheard cry for peacecities under siege - where the snipers strike lovers out of reach - yearning in the night take your lover's hand - meet your destiny down in noone's land - for eternityCrossfire!
