Ladies and gentelmanMajor greeting
You're keeper of wickedry
The path to Shangrila
Is missled by he
Missled by you
He is of your negativity
He is of your hate
Meet the other half of the jugglin' duo
That is your soul
The amazing Jack Jeckel, JeckelJack throw another Jake catch one more
They'll try and catch all that's in store for you
How many souls will fall from the sky?
(For you)
How many souls burned wonderin' why?Jack throw another Jake catch one more
They'll try and catch all that's in store for you
How many souls will fall from the sky?
(For you)
How many souls burned wonderin' why?Jack throw another Jake catch one more
(How many more? How many more? How many more? How many more?)
They'll try and catch all that's in store for you
How many souls will fall from the sky?
(For you)
How many souls burned wonderin' why?Jack throw another Jake catch one more
(How many more? How many more? How many more? How many more?)
They'll try and catch all that's in store for you
How many souls will fall from the sky?
(For you)
How many souls burned wonderin' why?
