

Start of Something Big

Miles Kane

You better watch out

Banging out the old with the new
Cactus dying in the desert too
Red is shining through Righteous way and you

Cover up the polka dots
Turn it off and make it stop
Blood is flowing faster again
That's the energy in my head

Lately I've been known to think
I'm at the start of something big
In a world that's so unsure

You better watch out

One, two, three, and four
I've got you knocking up and
Down my door
You know I'm heading for the
Golden mile
You can see it in my smile

Right or wrong
Sing this song
You better watch out

We're at the start of something big
