

Say What You Will

Justin Hines

If I were to die today
my life would be more than okay
For the time I've spent with you
Is like a dream come true

And if this was the last goodbye, no more tears to dry I'd say it one more time,
its been more than fine
and how could I know
and how could I show

(chorus)

Say what you will before its too late,
say what you will, mmhmm (x2)

And if you were to walk away,
know you couldn't stay, just think of all the times we've had all the good and not the bad

and how could I know
and how could I show

(chorus)

And all the time that I was holding back just trying to protect myself well I want you to know I loved you more than that

(chorus)

And if I were to die today,
my life would be more than okay
