

Setting Sun

Swervedriver

You setting sun
We were terrorised
As we reached the hull and the ship capsized
And we cast our stones on silent seas
In memories
Pure solid gold
You're not alone
Hearing unseen sounds from the depths below
And you've settled well
Into darker glows, far away
You setting sun
You're a setting sun
Casting dark on everyone
But you've a heart of gold
And i'm a castaway soul
And we're sailing home
