

Wanna Be

Tamia

Yeah, I'm back in this joint right here
For all my people who, who sick of playin' seconds and
And takin' somebody's leftovers
Get out the back seat, take the passenger seat
Ya know what I'm sayin'? Y'all feel me? Y'all feel me?
Hear me outIs it me or her, babe?
You gotta make your decision
'Cuz you got the wrong impression
I don't want nobody's secondsI just want all of you, babe
I'm used to gettin' what I like
Just to curve my appetite
Serve you on a flame with a first class flightI wanna be the girl you take to your crib
And not the girl you hate to show where you live
I wanna be the girl for you, all your life
And not the girl you're thinkin' of late at nightLet's be truthful please
Will she always be around?
I need to know right here and now
Can I bury her underground?I just want all of you, babe
And she's always in the way
And she's always in your face
Am I the one who's being played?I wanna be the girl you take to your crib
And not the girl you hate to show where you live
I wanna be the girl for you, all your life
And not the girl you're thinkin' of late at nightNot your chick on the side
I wanna be your main chick
So, you gon' have to pick
Between Lisa, Kim and Stacy and whoeverNot your chick on the side
I wanna be your main chick
So, you gon' have to pick
Between Lisa, Kim and Stacy and whoeverI wanna be the girl you take to your crib
And not the girl you hate to show where you live
I wanna be the girl for you, all your life
And not the girl you're thinkin' of late at nightI wanna be the girl you take to your crib
And not the girl you hate to show where you live
I wanna be the girl for you, all your life
And not the girl you're thinkin' of late at night
