

Breathless

Ratham Stone

It's about that time again I think I should be heading home
Go to sleep and have a dream of when I'm not alone
Who knows maybe I can find you there
I'm running up and down the streets of where I use to live
I won't quit until I find the girl that could've been

Who knows maybe I can find you there And you told me you won't let go, said your heart was the map and you showed me the road

And you told me to start real slow, and were clear to take off and you got me to hold I've never been in love before, I never wanted nothing more
I never thought I'd meet the best, you're the girl that's perfect
Baby please don't ever leave, I know that's kind of selfish
But it's really hard to think when you leave me so breathless We can run and hide, we can get away
We can leave tonight, tell me what you say

Where your at is where im going And you told me you won't let go, said your heart was the map and you showed me the road

And you told me to start real slow, and were clear to take off and you got me to hold I've never been in love before, I never wanted nothing more
I never thought I'd meet the best, you're the girl that's perfect
Baby please don't ever leave, I know that's kind of selfish
But it's really hard to think when you leave me so breathless
I've never been in love before, I never wanted nothing more
I never thought I'd meet the best, you're the girl that's perfect
Baby please don't ever leave, I know that's kind of selfish
But it's really hard to think when you leave me so breathless
I can't believe I found a little piece of solid gold
I piece to the puzzle that will no longer have a hole
Baby please don't ever leave I know that's kind of selfish
But it's really hard to think when you leave me so breathless
