

Calling Me Out (Acoustic)

Rebelution

I know were not the same, but you're calling me out
I-I can't explain it, you're calling me out
I'm not to blame, don't call me out And I can explain it, you're calling me out
Let's get to the point yeahh
Did I disappoint ya
I wish this was a dream, but for now you put the blame on me And I don't really know what we're fighting for
But right now it doesn't matter though
Still you put the blame on me I know were not the same, but you're calling me out
And I can't explain it, you're calling me out
I'm not to blame, don't call me out Well I can't explain it, you're calling me out
Sometimes you know you just gotta let things go
Sometimes you know you just gotta let things go Right or wrong, I'm moving on
And this one is for sure
Sometimes you know you just gotta let things go
Oo woo-oh yeahh
Oo woo-oh
