Restless Time

The Sound

I have to walk my town in the early hours
When the streets are clear and dawn is in the air
And in the end
I stumble on another day
But I reached it such a restless, restless way
Don't you know you'll give me such a restless time
There's something on your face but there is something else on mine
Don't you know you give me such a restless time
A smile on my face so you won't see what's on my mind
I'm pulling off the sheets from a bed of nails and rust
I lie awake and I'm thinking of you
It's the one thing I can trust
It all goes to ease
thefever that heats the whole of me
But its such a hopeless energy
Don't you know you'll give me such a restless time
There's something on your face but there is something else on mine
Don't you know you give me such a restless time
A smile on my face so you won't see what's on my mind
