Fuel To The Flame

Skeeter Davis

You kindle the fire of love inside me
Each time our lips meet
I'm not strong when we're alone
Your kisses make me weakYou must know how I feel
But do you feel the same
Every time you kiss me
You add fuel to the flameMy eyes light up when I see you
I burn with desire
Each time you're near, you say you're clear
But still I'm not sure
Please don't ask me to love you
If you're not going to change my name
'Cause every time you kiss me
You add fuel to the flameThe spark of love you started inside me
Has reached my very soul
You're adding fuel to a flame
That's already out of control
When you give me your name
I'll give you everything
Yes, every time you kiss me
You add fuel to the flame
