

A Charming Spell

Splashdown

Angels and Ministers of Grace
Come defend who's been praying
I've found you wanting by your weight
Who did you think you'd be saving?

Then suddenly, you're acting out of the need to be taking someone down
Hands on the altar for a charming spell

(Be sincere with persuasion)

Go ask your Goddess if you've served her well
(She'll be climbing higher now)
More sinned against than sinning, please

You're not above my suspicions
You're lamb and serpent just like me
It's more than just superstition

Then suddenly, I'm finding out that it's me you'll be taking down with you
Hands on the altar for a charming spell

(Be sincere with persuasion)

Go ask your Goddess if you've served her well
(She'll be climbing higher now)
Tie a knife with a ribbon, with a red, red, ribbon

Raise a hand-held mirror to the light of the moon
With a secret garden and a heart unhardened, strike a specter's bargain with a ritual brew

Book and candle is natural to those pure and simple
Tie a knife with a ribbon, with a red, red, ribbon

Tie a knife with a ribbon, with a red, red, ribbon
Don't try your magic spells on me

I know you've been crystal gazing
You say your boots are seven league

Where 'er you go, I'll be waiting!
Hands on the altar for a charming spell

(Be sincere with persuasion)

Go ask your Goddess if you've served her well
(She'll be climbing higher now)

Hands on the altar for a charming spell

(Be sincere with persuasion)

Go ask your Goddess if you've served her well
(She'll be climbing higher now)
Tie a knife with a ribbon, with a red, red, ribbon

Raise a hand-held mirror to the light of the moon
With a secret garden and a heart unhardened, strike a specter's bargain with a ritual brew

Book and candle is natural to those pure and simple
Tie a knife with a ribbon, with a red, red, ribbon

Tie a knife with a ribbon, with a red, red, ribbon
