

I Got Away with You

Luke Combs

Well I got caught in Panama City trying to buy some beer for some Georgia girls
And I got wore out by my daddy for stealing cigarettes from the Smokes and More
When all my friends would get away, seems I'd get caught plane as day
I took the blame for every little thing But I got away with you
And somehow I still ain't been found out
It's a crazy truth like I strolled out the gates of Alcatraz
And I walked in the Louvre now the Mona Lisa's hanging in my house
I bust out of Buckingham with the crown jewels, and I got away with you Looking like you do, on its damn own should be a crime
Let alone a fool like me, hand in hand with you should be doin' time
But here we are running free, guess someone turned the other cheek
'Cause there ain't no blue lights in rear view Yes I got away with you
And somehow I still ain't been found out
It's a crazy truth like I strolled out the gates of Alcatraz
And I walked in the Louvre now the Mona Lisa's hanging in my house
I bust out of Buckingham with the crown jewels, and I got away with you I'd take it all, the fails the falls
The county jails the one phone calls
I'd do it all again if I had to 'Cause I got away with you
And somehow, girl, I still ain't been found out
It's a crazy truth like I strolled out the gates of Alcatraz
And I walked in the Louvre now the Mona Lisa's hanging in my house
I bust out of Buckingham with the crown jewels, when I got away with you
When I got away with you
Yeah, I got away with you

Songwriters

LUKE COMBS, RAYMOND MORGAN FULCHER, TYLER REEVE Published by

Lyrics © Warner/Chappell Music, Inc. Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>