

You Could Be Different

Childhood

 Into the garden now where she lies
 How does she kill me with those eyes
 She haunts me in the night
 But she'll be gone in the morning
 And see her favourite smile
 Is one that never feels rightGet away, did you see me smile
 I heard you say, you'll be here for a whileWhy don't you tell me something
 You could be different
 Still i'm scared the sameIs it real?
 All her colours spin into one
 With my arms left down frozen and numb
 She holds me right up tight
 But she'll never breath a word
 And see her favourite smile
 Is one that never feels rightGet away, did you see me smile
 I heard you say, you'll be here for a whileWhy don't you tell me something
 You could be different
 Still i'm scared the same
 You may be different
 It's all and the sameIs it real?
 You may be different
