You're Sleeping

Tiger Trap

i whisper i love you
into your ear
i don't know
if you even hear
a word that i say
'cause you're lying there i hope you're dreaming of mewe need to know that you're not a () case
(feel nice to say back to me?)you're sleeping all of the time
you're sleeping
all of the timewhen was the last time that you saw a morning when was the last time that i saw your face
smiling awake like
it was in the old days
maybe you're dreaming of theni wait around for you watching the clock go around and around and now the day is all gone and i miss youyou're sleeping
all of the time
you're sleeping
all of the timei love to go under your pillow
i hope you find it soon maybe you'll call me somedaydo you remember when i used to wake you each morning with kisses, you'd kiss me too that was so long ago now i just slip away quietly so as not to disturb youi've only got so much time in the day to be with you i'd love to be with you always but... just nuts about youyou're sleeping
all of the time
you're sleeping
all of the timeyou're sleeping
all of the time
you're sleeping
all of the time
